2. Alteration in Risk

You or Your broker must tell Us immediately if during the Period of Insurance there is any alteration in risk or to the facts which You disclosed when You took out this policy, which materially affects the risk of injury, loss, Damage or liability which would fall within the policy cover. This includes but is not limited to alterations to the Business or the Premises.

When You tell Us about an alteration in risk, We may apply additional terms and conditions to this policy (including but not limited to premium) or, if the risk is unacceptable to Us, We may cancel the policy in accordance with General Condition 4 (b) - Our Rights to Cancel the Policy.

If You fail to tell Us about an alteration in risk, We may:

- (a) terminate the policy back to the date when the alteration occurred, if We would have cancelled the policy had You told Us of the alteration in risk;
- (b) proportionately reduce the amount payable in respect of a claim; and/or

Where We elect to proportionately reduce the amount payable in respect of a claim, We will pay a percentage of the claim, the percentage being calculated by comparing the premium which You actually paid with the premium which We would have charged had You told us about the alteration in risk. For example, if the premium which You actually paid is 70% of the premium We would have charged, We will only pay 70% of any claim.

No refund will be given if a claim has been submitted or there have been any incidents likely to give rise to a claim during the current Period of Insurance.

(b) Our Rights to Cancel the Policy

We or any agent appointed by Us and acting with Our authority have the right to cancel Your policy, where there is a valid reason for doing so.

We will give You fourteen days notice of cancellation in writing, by recorded delivery, to the latest address We have for You and will set out Our reason for cancellation in Our letter. Valid reasons may include but are not limited to:

- (ii) use of threatening or abusive behaviour or language, or intimidation or bullying of Our staff or suppliers.

If We cancel Your policy, We will refund the premium for the exact number of days left on the policy unless a claim or an incident likely to give rise to a claim has occurred during the current Period of Insurance. No refund will be given if a claim has been submitted or there have been any incidents likely to give rise to a claim during the current Period of Insurance.

If You are paying by monthly instalments:

- (a) all outstanding monies must be paid to Us as described in Your Loan Agreement
- (b) We may exercise Our right to collect the balance of any outstanding premium in the event of a claim.

6. Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999

A person or company who was not a party to this policy has no right under the Contracts (Rights of Third parties) Act 1999 to enforce any term of this policy but this does not affect any right or remedy of a third party which exists or is available apart from that Act.

7. Fair Presentation of the Risk

You must make a fair presentation of the risk when You first take out this policy and also whenever You renew it or ask Us to change Your cover.

If You fail to make a fair presentation of the risk including failing to disclose or misrepresenting a material fact, or disclosing material facts to Us in a way which is not clear and accessible We may avoid this policy and refuse all claims where:

General Conditions

- (a) such failure was deliberate or reckless; or
- (b) We would not have entered into this policy on any terms had You made a fair presentation of the risk.

Should We avoid this policy We:

- (a) shall treat the policy as if it had not existed from the start date, the renewal date, or the date when You asked Us to change Your cover, depending on when the failure to make a fair presentation of the risk occurred
- (b) shall return the premium paid for the period for which the policy is treated as not having existed unless the failure to make a fair presentation of the risk was deliberate or reckless
- (c) may deduct from any return of premium due to You any monies already paid in respect of claims falling within the period for which the policy is treated as not having existed or require You to repay such claims.

Provided that any failure to make a fair presentation of the risk is not deliberate or reckless, if We would have entered into or renewed this policy, or agreed to make changes to Your cover on different terms had You made a fair presentation of the risk, We may:

- (a) proportionately reduce the amount payable in respect of a claim; and/or
- (b) treat the policy as if it contained such different terms (other than relating to the premium) that We would have applied to the policy had You made a fair presentation of the risk.

Any reduction in claims payments or application of different terms will take effect from the date on which the policy started, was renewed or when changes were made to Your cover, depending on when You failed to make a fair presentation of the risk.

Where We elect to proportionately reduce the amount payable in respect of a claim, We will pay a percentage of the claim, the percentage being calculated by comparing the premium which You actually paid with the premium which We would have charged had You made a fair presentation of the risk. For example, if the premium which You actually paid is 70% of the premium We would have charged, We will only pay 70% of any claim.

Where this policy provides benefits to individuals who would, if they had taken out similar insurance in their own name, have done so for purposes wholly or mainly unconnected with their trade, business or profession, We will not rely on this condition if the failure to make a fair presentation of the risk concerns only facts or information which relate to that particular individual, unless the individual (or You on their behalf) makes a careless misrepresentation, in which case We may rely on this condition as against that particular individual as if a separate insurance contract had been issued to them leaving the remainder of the policy unaffected.

8. Instalments

- (a) security devices are put into full and effective operation whenever the Premises are closed for Business or left unattended
- (b) keys and all details of any codes or combinations relating to any part of the Intruder Alarm Installation and any safe or strongroom are removed from the Premises whenever the Premises are closed for Business or left unattended
